

Title: How To Run A Bar

Logline: We learn the positives and negatives of running a bar in 2024

My idea is to make a short comedic documentary about running a bar. It will feature a cocky, arrogant bartender who gives lots of incorrect tips cut between shots of a completely empty bar and the bartender sat on his phone.

Location: Wilson's Social.
Relatively quiet on weekdays and they most likely wouldn't charge much (or anything) to film.

Similar Films: Mockumentaries like What We Do In The Shadows and The Office. British comedies like Shaun of the Dead and Peep Show.
