

'Love' written by Kenzie Glover

Writing a poem by starting with the title,
It's quite difficult with one this important.
Everyone believes in love,
I hope,
Even people who don't believe in romance,
People still love.
That might be a love for art, or a person, or a stuffed toy.
People love.

It's my favourite thing,
I think.

Love is amazing.

I love writing,
I love creating things,
I love seeing the world.

There's people I've loved, and some I still do.

It's such a wonderful thing,
To love.

What do you love?
